FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Grateful thanks go to ALL involved in the work and support of our children who made their First Holy Communion at St. Joseph's and St. Teresa's last weekend. The Masses were conducted with great enthusiasm and tremendous reverence - a great credit to everyone! Thank you.

This Saturday the second group of children received their First Holy Communion. Thank you to our parents, catechists, teachers, pupils, parishioners, and to all who played some part in celebrating the gift of our young children who received their First Holy Communion.

Please keep all our children in your prayers.

OUR CHURCHES

Sincere thanks to all members of Irlam Catholic Club for their very generous and timely donation to the parish of £1,500 which will be used for ongoing repairs to our Church property.

Recently the Church grounds at St. Teresa's was cleaned up, this involved the removal of a large tree which had grown within a few inches of the Church near the sanctuary on Astley Road. The gutters were cleared of leaves etc. and the leaks coming from the guttering will be attended to soon. The leak from a hole in the roof between the Avila Centre and the sacristy will also be addressed soon. Some minor repairs are taking place in the church, sacristy and a new carpet is to be laid in a few days on the sanctuary.

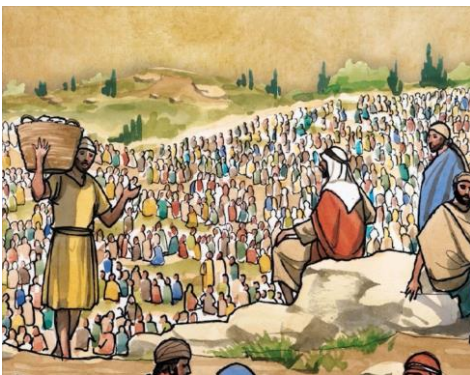

In St. Joseph's work will soon begin on the potholes around the grounds, as well as repairs to the roof of the Church. A few days ago, a new hearing system was fitted along with the loop system for the hard of hearing which I hope will be of help to us all.
